

Lever Press

Lever Press is a press governed by its participating members. An Editorial Board, composed of faculty from participating institutions, oversees the editorial and review process for their titles; an elected Oversight Committee, composed of representatives of participating institutions, directs the execution of their business plan. They are a member of the Association of University Presses.

A look at the factors that distinguish Lever Press and make it appealing to authors: Why Authors Publish with Lever Press

Usage statistics for Lever Press titles combined with reader feedback: Impact of Lever Press Titles

Revision #5

Created 28 May 2025 11:02:24 by Anna Hughes

Updated 10 June 2025 07:45:56 by Anna Hughes